

PICK 'N' MIX

Create your own style

Helpful info to gather, before getting down to the nitty-gritty?

Going through these questions will help you gather your thoughts, and assist in working out what your look is and how it will fit in with the format of your wedding, plus it's great to have all of this info in one place to refer to as you start styling your wedding. Hopefully answering the questions will help you to realise where your restrictions lie, and where you have lots of freedom!

Helpful info to gather, before getting down to the nitty-gritty

Let's start with the colour palette, what are you thinking?

Do you have a theme?

How many guests are you expecting?

Do you have a budget in mind for styling?

Do you want to have flowers as part of your wedding styling? What flowers do you love?

Are you having a gift table? Or Wishing well? Or both?

Ceremony

Is your ceremony inside or outside?

Do you have a wet weather option if your ceremony if it is outside?

Does your ceremony venue provide a backdrop?

What does your ceremony venue provide as seating for the guests?

Does your ceremony venue provide a signage table and chairs? If so, do you like them?
They will be in lots of photos!

Reception

Are you having a sit down or cocktail reception?

sit down

cocktail

Is there a spot at your venue that's singing out for an entry feature?

Have you asked the venue for a floorplan?

Sit down:

Are you having cocktail hour?  Yes  No

If so, what furniture does the venue provide?

What shape are your tables? Long, round, oval?

Are you having a traditional bridal table?  Yes  No

What material are the tables made of? Timber? Plastic? Worth considering whether you need tablecloths or not?

What style of catering are you having?

What linen does the venue provide? Napkins? Cloths?

How are guests going to know where to sit?

Cocktail:

What furniture does the venue provide?

What linen does the venue provide? Napkins? Cloths?

How many people do you have attending that would appreciate comfortable seating (older generation)

What does the bar look like if there is one for drink service?

What style of catering are you having?

We always suggest creating a Pinterest board or mood board of images you like. Don't feel restricted by just styling, you can include anything for the day - clothing, words, catering, entertainment - that way you will see your vision start to come together!